Newsletter

This Newsletter is provided by ETAPL in order to keep the membership informed of upcoming events, current/pending legislation affecting the Oil & Gas Industry, and general information pertaining to our business and its members.

ETAPL Website - Job Bank - www.etapl.org

Check our website at www.etapl.org. Among other things, it contains a Calendar of Upcoming Events, Membership Directory, and most importantly it has links to a Job Bank where you can post your resume if you are looking for work, or you can post a job if you have work and need a Landman.

NOTICES

1. ETAPL annual dues of $50.00 are payable in advance and are now due. Dues not received by September 30 will terminate the member from the Association and the member will be required to reapply for membership.

2. Landman Courses- There are no Landman courses scheduled by Tyler Junior College at this time. If you, and nine other people, are interested in taking a Landman - related course, contact: Carla Curtis, Program Development Manager, Tyler Junior College, P.O. Box 9020, Tyler, TX, 75711; 903-510-3281

SYMPATHY

We want to extend our sympathy to the Sheehy and Wilson Families. Mike Sheehy passed away on June 5 and Maxie Wilson passed away on June 10. They were long time members and supporters of the ETAPL. Our thoughts and prayers continue to be with these families.

CONGRATULATIONS

Bob Bergfeld, AAPL Director and long time ETAPL member, received the Lifetime Achievement Award at the Annual AAPL meeting that was held in Vail, Colorado.

NEW DIRECTORS

Will Beal, Ted Helbig and Kerry Lowery were elected to serve as directors. We are happy to have them on the Board. Please log on the etapl.org for a list of Officers, Directors, the Past President and AAPL Director.

LICENSING OF LANDMEN

The discussion of licensing Landmen will continue to be on the radar as we begin the year. Bob Bergfeld, Trey Morgan and Marc Morrison worked tirelessly last year to stay abreast of this issue. Bob, Marc and I, along with the Board, will continue to stay focused on this issue and work with the other Associations to keep you informed and bring about a positive resolution. (SO FAR IT IS QUIET)

DIGITAL NEWSLETTER AND WEBSITE UPDATE

We will be working to provide you with a digital newsletter to cut down on our monthly expenditures. We understand some of our members do not have access to the internet and therefore we will always have hard copies available for them. We will continue to send hard copies to everyone until we are confident we have a good system for sending our newsletters. We will also be updating the website to keep you informed of future events.

OPPORTUNITY

Oilfield Christian Fellowship will meet for lunch from 11:30 to 1:00 at Hollytree on the 2nd Wednesday of each month. Lunch is $15 (pay at the door - a very good buffet). Newcomers are welcome. Contact person for more info: Caroline Powers, phone 903-526-4680, e-mail: caroline@blockt.com. If you contact Caroline to get on her e-mail list, she will send a reminder each month. They encourage reservations for the lunch meetings, but if you haven't made one you can still attend. Jim Harrison can also provide you with information.
